Occupants Flee Rooming House Fire

THIRTY PERSONS are seeking new homes in Edmonton today after two-alarm fire yesterday afternoon caused extensive damage to downtown Acme Rooming House. Main floor of the estimated $40,000 building was gutted and heavy smoke damage caused to other rooms. No one was injured in blaze, but firemen at first thought two men were trapped in basement of burning building. Cause of fire is being investigated.

HEAVY SMOKE which filled burning building hampered firemen in two and one-half-hour fight to save the property. Forced to don new style gas masks, among new equipment recently acquired by fire department firemen were successful in effort to keep threatening downtown fire from spreading.

Thirty Are Made Homeless In City Rooming House Fire

Thirty persons are homeless following a two-alarm fire which raged through a downtown rooming house Wednesday afternoon, causing heavy damage to the building.

No one was injured in the blaze which broke out in the Acme Rooming, 300-10th avenue at 4:36 p.m.

The two-alarm blaze—first since the Redwood Park fire last September—was quelled at 6:35 p.m. after four first floor suites had been completely gutted, the basement ruined and heavy smoke damage caused to all other suites and rooms.

Working in freezing temperatures, city firemen were forced to wear gas masks to combat the blaze.

The first alarm was turned in by a roomer, George Woodworth, who noticed smoke curling up from the basement. He raced to a nearby phone and sounded the alarm.

Allies Considering Blockade of China

Plans Are Studied By Truman, Attlee

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee today were reported as considering a blockade of the Communist China coast if United Nations troops are long beleaguered or are driven out of Korea.

The proposal was described by diplomatic informants as one of several ways considered for dealing with the Chinese Communist aggression, depending on what actually happens in the Korean fighting.

Negotiation of a settlement is another possible way, the president and prime minister are ready to consider any Chinese peace move provided it does not involve "appeasement."

Allies Brace On New Line To Halt Reds

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(BUP)—

The official Chinese Communist newspaper, the People's Daily, has called on both the North Korean and Chinese forces to continue their attacks on United Nations troops until the allies stop fighting.

The line stretched inland 70 miles in northwest Korea from the Yellow Sea. It was a defense line against the Chinese, and not a solid line.

The U.S. Eighth Army, with its headquarters at Seoul, was greatly outnumbered and hard hit but still was a unified fighting force.

The Chinese armies in front of it were estimated at 100,000 men with up to 80,000 more reserves behind them. Hundreds of thousands more in Korea or moving up from Manchuria.

The Eighth Army force on the defense line is something less than the 110,000 men of the United Nations. Walker had when he was forced to retreat late in November.

Northeast of the new line, U.S. forces battled in a blizzard in a head-on effort to break out of North Korea. They broke out of one and have to fight through another.

GIVE UP WONSON

Underestimating the critical situation, the United Nations forces near the reservoir and elsewhere in the northeast was the withdrawal of the American garrison at Wonson was relatively small. It was not identified.

Wonson was captured Oct. 10 by South Korean troops. The same Marines trapped at the Chongjin reservoir landed at the port Oct. 15 after a week-long, sweeping of the area. The Marines called it "Operation Wonsan-Heol."

MAIN GATE ROUTE

Handing and its nearby port of Hungnam, 50 miles north of Wonsan, now becomes the Allies' main base. The Chinese are now in a more central location for the 15th Corps.

The new line in the northeast is the 15th Corps' capital, and is 80 miles north of Parallel 38. General MacArthur described it as arching, firm; the west coast port of Chinnampo to Kusan, an inland town 33 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

There were no set lines in the northeast. Three American and two South Korean divisions are all over rugged map there, with the Marines and two regiments of the U.S. 7th Infantry Division in the worst spot.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Twelve persons were killed yesterday by avalanches caused by heavy rain in 81 years. Police said home-owners were being evacuated in some areas and expressed fear the death toll would run higher.

2 Per Cent Pension Tax Said Plan

Old-Age Security Program Studied At Ottawa Meet

By JAMES R. NELSON

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(BUP)—All Canadians may be paying two cents out of every dollar they earn into a special fund within a year to guarantee their old-age security plan.

Provincial welfare ministers could now be reported today to have agreed tentatively that a straight two per cent tax on all incomes would be the "least offensive" way of financing an expanded old age pensions plan.

Under the plan a man with a salary of $3,000 a year, for instance, would pay $60 a year while he worked and get a pension of $40 a month when he reaches 70 whether he needed it or not. Pensions ranging up to $40 a month for men and women between 65 and 70 would be based on a means test and paid jointly by the federal and provincial governments.

RAISES $200 MILLION

Finance experts estimated the tax would raise $200,000,000 a year on the basis of the present scale of income in Canada. The balance of the $200,000,000 needed to put the expanded pension scheme across Canada probably would be drawn from a special levy on corporation profits.

Delegates to the federal-provincial taxation and social security conference said, however, the tentative scheme contained several holes that would need plugging. Saskatchewan brought up one by saying that the 50-50 plan of paying the 65-70 age group pensions would cost it more than it now pays pensioners.

A parliamentary old age security committee which last spring recommended the expanded pension program said that generally, the provinces would be called on by law but that they do present if the contributory system were adopted.

COULD STAY IN FALL

Discussions between the welfare ministers and federal health minister Paul Martin ended last night but they were not conclusive. Martin said the talks were held merely to "exchange information."

A final decision will rest with the cabinets of each of the 10 provinces, and any agreement would call for an amendment to the constitution.

Federal spokesmen said the scheme could possibly go into effect next fall. They said that was dependent on all provinces agreeing and on negotiations proceeding smoothly both on the basic plan and on the constitutional amendment.

Crescent In East

HALIFAX, Dec. 7.—(CP)—The destroyer Crescent, coming here from the west coast to act as a training vessel for the crew of the aircraft carrier Magnificent, will arrive Sunday.

Pats May Go To Japan

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—Canada's Korean-born Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry may be diverted to Japan because of the deteriorating military situation, informed quarters said today.

They held that out as a possibility arising from the chaotic Korean situation but said the decision will be made by Gen MacArthur because he is the man to whom the Canadians have been assigned.

No word has reached here yet, officials said, that such a change of destination is in the offing although it would not be surprising. There also have been reports here that Canada's 345-man advance force now in Korea may be withdrawn to Japan.

Neither the advance party nor the Pats are trained for combat yet but officials have haven't written off the possibility that the Korean picture may get so desperate that "everybody may have to be used."

German Troops For Western Army Get Okay

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—The 12 Atlantic Pact deputies agreed today on a plan to bring German troops into western armies defending Europe.

The deputies asked for a meeting with the North Atlantic Pact military committee for the joint consideration of the political-military aspects of the German contribution.

"It is expected that this meeting will be held in the very near future," the deputies said in a communiqué.

Man Sentenced To Three Years At Whitehouse

WHITEHOUSE, Y.T., Dec. 7.—(CP)—Charles Caddy, convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced last night to three years in penitentiary.

A jury reduced the charge from murder to manslaughter in the death of Clarence Dixon, who was shot and killed in front of Caddy's house Oct. 14.

Evidence showed that Dixon had been creating a disturbance at Caddy's home. A shot was fired through the wall, striking Dixon, after he had been warned to leave.

Murder Charge Laid In Trail

TRAIL, Dec. 7.—(CP)—Leo Melior, 37-year-old high school student, yesterday was formally charged with the murder of a student, yesterday was formally charged with the murder of a student, yesterday was formally charged with the murder of a student.

They completely cleaned out John Smithbank out of his stock of cigarettes, Christmas displays and cash. Smithbank estimates his loss at more than $800. None of it was insured. They also took a portable radio valued at $30 and a new portable typewriter worth $50.

While in the bank, the men disregarded the safe but smashed open an office desk to get a load of $45,000 in cash.

The thieves parked a vehicle at the back of the store and used it to carry away the loot. Detectives this morning made plans to impress in an effort to determine the identity of the vehicle.

No cash was taken but they overtook $60 in cash and bills in a small bag sitting on top of the register.

CALGARY, Dec. 7.—(BUP)—

Henry Young, who has been elected president of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, will head the FUA for the two years since its organization.

Also defeated in their try for the presidency of the powerful Alberta organization were K. K. Stimpfle, of Stimpfle, and J. M. Westley, Chancellor.

Bow Flood Threat Eases

CALGARY, Dec. 7.—(CP)—Calgary experienced its quietest night in a week Wednesday as the waters of the Bow River remained within its channel following six successive nights of flooding.

A threat of another night of flood damage came shortly after 10 p.m. Wednesday with a report the water was rising rapidly in west Calgary.

Shorewards, however, the river, which has had a single channel on the north side of St. George's Island in east Calgary, broke through the south channel as well and the river level dropped rapidly.

This morning the city engineer's department reported the river flows well through both channels and added there was no seepage along the dikes which have been built to guard the flood area.

No residents were evacuated from their homes today last night.

Cripps Will Enter Famed Tab Centre

ZURICH, Switzerland, Dec. 7.—(UPI)—Sir Stafford Cripps, former British chancellor of the exchequer who is suffering from an infection of the spine, shortly will enter the world-famous tuberculosis center at Leysin, Switzerland, it was learned yesterday.

Alberta government is "likely" to finance construction costs of part or all of an outer ring road circling Edmonton.

Members of the Edmonton District Planning Commission, meeting yesterday, were told the cost of the 32-mile circle highway would be approximately $1,900,000 for a two-lane road and $3,000,000 for a four-lane road.

The Alberta government will be officially approached to contribute to the expenditure.

If the government considers the ring road part of its main highway system, the full cost may be borne by the government. Commission members said they have weeks or so in Montreal and the government is "likely" to share the cost of the project in any case.

rejected, or (2) of any Korean settlement which involves bargaining on outside, non-Korean issues—for example Red China's desire for United Nations membership and for control over the Chinese Nationalist island of Formosa.

Alides of Alides represent him as being generally opposed to the idea of carrying on a "half-war" against the Chinese Reds indefinitely.

Apparently his view is that if UN forces are expelled from Korea the western powers should wind up the Far Eastern conflict as rapidly as possible and concentrate all of their efforts on Western Europe.

No Thought Of Withdrawal

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Defense Minister Emanuel Shinwell said today in the House of Commons that "there is no thought in my mind or in that of the American authorities of withdrawal from Korea."

He said there may be "still harder tidings" from the critical front, however, "No one knows what the outcome will be. It would be foolish to underestimate the size of the danger of the Chinese intervention."

He told the House UN forces already have 270,000 men in Korea, with 300,000 more in reserve.

TRIBUTE TO YANKS

He paid tribute to the gallantry with which our allies—particularly the U.S. soldiers, the main bearers of the burden of the Chinese assault—have been fighting, and added:

"The government are fully aware of the anxiety which must be felt by the relatives of those serving in Korea and indeed the whole country. We share their anxiety."

points of Edmonton, would reduce the Imperial Oil refinery site, cross the Saskatchewan river at the new Beverly bridge, enclose Beverly, follow the north edge of the city limits, and enclose most of Jasper Place, crossing the river at a new bridge west of the city.

One other new bridge—either a high or a low level—would be required in the Whitemud Creek area.

Some financial assistance in constructing the route may be provided by the Dominion government in the interests of civil defence, and from the federal government Grade Crossing fund for subways or overpasses.

ACTION SOON

The report of the proposed road, submitted to the commission by I. Pinkin, planning technician, recommended immediate action on the project.

The commission moved to submit the proposal for consideration to council of municipal districts and towns bordering the city.

Draft bill governing the moving of buildings within the urban and rural areas under the commission's jurisdiction was approved by commission members. Uniform permits, to be used by persons seeking to move buildings from one municipal area to another or between city and municipality, were recommended by the commission.

CALGARY, Dec. 7.—(CP)—F. E. Maricle of Hamlin, Alta., whose resignation from membership in the Farmers' Union of Alberta has been asked because of his association with the Communist-inspired Canadian Peace Congress, said yesterday his conscience is clear.

Mr. Maricle, a director of the FUA, told 500 delegates to the annual convention that "at no time have I refused to carry out the mandates of these conferences and the constitution."

He said that "in board meetings I endeavor to further democracy."

Mr. Maricle recently returned from the World Peace Conference in London.

HOT JEWELS REALLY 'COOL'

NEWARK, N.J., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Christmas shoppers today saw this sign in the window of a jewelry store.

"Smuggled diamonds for sale."

"It was all right, however. The jewelry store had bought the gems from the government, which had seized them."

She said that Guy was the one who wanted her to commit suicide. Mr. Simard, who is also Ruest's lawyer at his murder trial, objected to the crown's request that Mrs. Pitre be kept in jail without bail on the grounds that the woman had never failed to appear in court when she was requested to do so.

AWAITING TRIAL
Mrs. Pitre, who is already awaiting trial on a charge of intimidating a witness in connection with her brother's case, has been free on bail up till now.

Paul Miquelin, C.K. assistant prosecutor in the Ruest case, said the crown objected to bail in Mrs. Pitre's case until the end of her brother's trial. He said he wanted to point out the woman was already awaiting trial on an intimidation charge.

When Judge Pettigrew decided that Mrs. Pitre should remain in jail, she was asked quietly with the police after she said: "Thank you."

U.S. Committees
Aid Yugoslavia, Aid

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—House of Representatives and Senate today passed joint resolutions approving a bill authorizing an additional $100,000 to provide food for Yugoslavia.

The money, which still must be appropriated, would raise total aid to the anti-Soviet Yugoslav government to approximately $700,000.

LONDON.—(CP)—Anglo-American Roman Catholic and Nonconformist in Britain combined to hold a Christian art festival this month featured by a display of historic books, contemporary Christian art and religious drama and film.

The festival was a strange one to civic politics. He covered the city hall best as a reporter for the Windsor Star, served 2½ years as a member and controller. Two years ago he ran for mayor, losing to Mr. Beattie by 2,500 votes.

The majority race overhauled mayor Beattie a 2½ vote edge. He publicly thanked the voters for his reelection and Mr. Brophy announced he would seek a re-election. But the mayor's lead evaporated quickly when the figures were checked. Almost within seconds it was by 10 votes to 27. Later it was by 10 votes to 27. Later it was by 10 votes to 27.

Amendment Tries Seen If Cities Act Passed

There will be a continuous series of applications for amendment of the Alberta government's Cities Act, if the act becomes law at the next session of the legislature.

That is the opinion of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce legislative committee.

An interim report to the council today called the proposed act "a fairly comprehensive document embracing some 720 sections" dealing with city government.

"But it is still fraught with too great a number of specific qualifications which could be replaced with more general provisions," the report stated.

EXACT REMUNERATION

The specifying of the exact remuneration of aldermen was one of a number of "infeasibilities" in the Act objected to by the committee under chairman C. W. Clement, K.C.

"Apart from this general observation," the report added, "there are a number of other observations."

The other observations included criticism of "qualification for office" clauses in the Act, voting procedure, exemption from taxation.

Under qualifications for office seekers the committee complained there was no provision requiring property qualification for mayors or aldermanic candidates.

EXACT REMUNERATION

"On the other hand a retailer who has the ordinary course of his business, said merchandise to the city in excess of $200 is barred," the report charged.

Chamber officials said the brief in the Cities Act would be discussed with city council "before being presented to the provincial legislature."

A new move to give Edmonton "gateway routes" or signs to welcome tourists to this city was recommended by the chamber's tourist committee.

The report said a local sign painter had been asked to submit samples and estimates on the project.

Pair was arrested at Lac La Biche by the RCMP after a city man, Joseph D'Arvis, CN 8000, had traced them to a northern lumber camp after they had stolen a bag of clothes from his room Nov. 22.

An ironic twist entered the case when the pair failed to find $100 bills hidden in a mirror stolen with the clothes.

BENEFICENT THEM

D'Arvis told police he had befriended the pair and allowed them to sleep in his room before they went north. When they disappeared with his clothes, he located them and then contacted police.

Arthur Tourangeau, an Edmonton resident, received a one-year sentence because he pleaded guilty to theft of $160 from the suitcase of a fellow worker in an Edmonton lumber camp last month.

John Bethune, no fixed address, whose criminal record dates back more than 10 years, was sentenced for theft of a Jack Hayes taxi Nov. 28.

THIRILLING CASE

Bethune's arrest in a lane climaxed a thrilling chase by two police cars and 14 taxi cabs through the city streets.

Bethune, who stole the cab from in front of the bus driver, was spotted by a taxi cab driver, who called the alarm.

Newbury taxi joined in and Bethune was forced from the taxi and taken to the Edmonton Police Commission warehouse before he was captured.

He had been convicted of 10 charges of theft in Manitoba in 1946 and spent two years in the penitentiary.

A German immigrant to Canada got a severe reprimand from Magistrate J. A. Johnson after he pleaded guilty to retaining stolen goods.

EX-GROCERY OWNER

Peter Prokopuk, former owner of the North Star grocery, 12722-66 St., was charged with buying goods from two men who stole them from the Scott Fruit company.

The two men appeared last week and each faced five charges of theft. Prokopuk was charged with buying goods from them.

AGAINST CITY

A judgment was awarded Ernest Lamoureux against the City of Edmonton for damages received when a city bus collided with the rear of the car driven by his wife, Sept. 19, 1949.

Judge McDonald ruled that Mrs. Lamoureux was 35 per cent to blame in turning into a lane ahead of the bus without making sure she could make the turn in complete safety.

Mrs. Lamoureux had to slow almost to a stop in front of the bus when the pedestrian crossed the lane walk in front of her.

81.25 DAMAGES

But, because the bus driver was held to be 65 per cent to blame, Mrs. Lamoureux will receive $81.25 damages.

Largest claim was awarded St. Paul district farmer, Alex. Matvey, who, when his neighbor, William Ewaschuk, was charged with selling a few chickens spread to Matvey's farm and burned down a quantity of timber.

Judge T. C. Cross awarded Matvey $300 of his $300 claim against Ewaschuk.

Dr. Hemmings Wins Vacant Council Seat

DRUMHELLER, Dec. 7.—Dr. C. H. Hemmings won the vacant seat on Drumheller city council yesterday.

He defeated Harry Burton, former councillor, and Albert Potter, new entry into Drumheller city field.

The by-election was called by the recent resignation of Nick Charyk.

Charyk gave 167 votes to Hemmings, 114 to Burton, and 66 to Potter.

Dawson Creek Nudged By Mains, But Where Is Gas?

Residents of Dawson Creek, B.C., were still wondering today when they are going to get the natural gas supplies for which they converted their heating units this year.

The gas was thought to have on its last month by West Coast Transmission Co. from the Peace River field in Alberta.

So far it hasn't got any closer than that to Dawson Creek town.

Tantalizing effect of oil-filled stoves with several million cubic feet of gas at hand has been intensified by the problem of getting coal delivered from a stockpile of coal within trucking distances.

Supplies in town were almost down to last residents anticipated the arrival of gas.

NO PLANS

Board of Transport Commissioners said at Ottawa today it had not received necessary documents which are preliminary to starting gas flowing through the town's mains.

The board's announcement follows reports that shivering Dawson Creek residents have asked for government red tape.

Board informants said that under a board official said the West Coast Transmission Co., which built the line—must file a certificate of public convenience" until they receive a contract for purchase of the gas from West Coast Transmission.

When we receive the documents we will be able to deal with the board official said.

Northland Utilities Ltd. said yesterday they would not be able to obtain a "certificate of public convenience" until they receive a contract for purchase of the gas from West Coast Transmission.

The report said the complaints would be checked again in six weeks to see if a TCA assurance to correct the trouble "when the new line is finished" had brought about any change.

Final establishment of beam stations at Donald and Vernon, B.C., to shorten the TCA fight between Edmonton and Vancouver was also urged again in the report.

Money for the project should be included in the 1951 federal government estimate, a request from the council stated.

The beam stations were started once by the federal government and then halted short of completion.

Organists Give Lecture, Recital On Bach Music

Commemorating the death of the great Johann Sebastian Bach 200 years ago, Prof. L. H. Nichols, University of Alberta, gave a lecture and recital on Bach's organ music last night.

Prof. Nichols emphasized the strong influence of Lutheran Protestantism on the life he termed "unparalleled as a composer of organ music."

In the 200 years following his death, Bach's music has won its popularity as the influence of nineteenth century romantic composers rose.

Now he is seen in his true perspective as a master of modern music, a musical form which developed after him. "Bach's history may turn out to be the history of music itself," commented Prof. Nichols.

No Time to Waste

Unless the city council takes almost immediate action on formulating plans for building a civic centre, the onset of war or even a continuation of war threats could so affect building prospects as to make the civic centre area a bleak and desolate no-man's land for years to come.

Wisely and with full regard for the majority opinion in Edmonton, Alderman Clarke has persuaded council to name a committee to consider this project.

But the ball has already been passed between the commissioners and council so that valuable time has been lost.

First the council wanted the commissioners to nominate a committee. Then the commissioners wanted council to nominate a committee. Finally the matter was turned over to the council's nominations committee for action.

More than 60 per cent of the burgesses, who voted for the Miracle Mile, and more than 80 per cent of the citizens who would have voted for it if they had a chance, hope they get that action.

For only quick and decisive action can prevent the civic centre area from falling under the further blight of war restrictions.

If this happens, a vital part of the downtown section of Edmonton will deteriorate rapidly to the status of a slum area and carry adjacent property with it.

No matter who is appointed to the civic centre committee their immediate duties will be clear and urgent.

First of all outside capital is ever to be brought into Edmonton for development purposes, the legislature will have to remove the unjust and iniquitous provision that enables the council to deal with that capital only with the consent of two-thirds of the burgesses.

Edmonton's council should have the right to make such arrangements involving no capital expenditures of Edmonton's money, with the consent of a simple majority of electors.

The next session of the legislature should be asked to grant that right.

In the second place, the First New Amsterdam Corporation of New York should be asked to submit another proposal in regard to another or a similar Miracle Mile.

If these steps are not taken, the city council and its committees will be openly flouting the will of more than 60 per cent of the burgesses and 80 per cent of the citizens.

It is the intention of the provincial government to appoint emergency authority to all those branches of government which would require such authority should the province be suddenly placed in a war state.

No one knows that war will come to Alberta. Most people believe it will not.

But there is a very real threat of war that no one can ignore.

Alberta is doing a magnificent job of making adequate preparations to meet it.

War Said Too Important To Be Left to the Generals

In one short week we have been plunged from the doorstep of peace in Korea to defeat and possibility of world war three.

No one in our part of the world is sure of the reason.

Did the Chinese Communists come crashing south because General MacArthur by-passed the "home by Christmas" attack order at the very moment when British diplomacy had worked out the buffer zone deal?

But we should keep all the above in proper proportion. The present point is, not "how we got this way," but what should be done now. We cannot now afford the luxury of a western family quarrel.

Are the Chinese Communists and their Russian allies already in waiting? Or, better yet, made the war in Korea.

Or are they cleverly using MacArthur's mistakes to make trouble between the British and Americans?

If what they want is a 20-mile buffer zone, why do they not plainly say so at UN?

If the Chinese want peace, they can leave a matter of days, or even hours, by simply "coming clean."

But since the world Communist leadership really want peace in Korea or anywhere else

Why do we not know—and we should be prepared to face the worst, while working and planning for the best?

If World War Three is at hand, key points are:

1. The Suez Canal Zone.
2. Germany and Western Europe.

Either in cold war or hot war, as India goes so eventually will Canada. And if we do, so eventually will all Africa.

As Germany does, so eventually will the United States, neighbors, east and west.

LIVE NINE DAYS

P.E. Canned Lobster Stares Back at You

The can opener scooped around the lid, and presto! Lobster came clattered over the rim and a bullet-shaped head with black body eyes protruded from the shell at the fork.

The cook fainted.

The scene was probable in more than one gourmet's kitchen as Prince Edward Island began to ship frozen lobsters around the continent.

The firm keeps secret the formula by which lobsters, still dripping with the coastal waters, are hermetically sealed in large tins. It guarantees they will stay alive for nine days, long enough to reach seafood lovers everywhere in Canada or the United States.

A single tin big like a tea bag contains the formula which keeps the lobsters alive, prevents them from rotting, and when the shellfish is boiled or frozen for shipping.

Complete figures from the industry show that about 100,000 pounds of lobster were not available, but the 3,000,000-pound lobster catch for 1950, for instance, represented $2,000,000 income for the island.

Canned poultry represented $200,000, and the $2,000,000 brought in by the poultry industry.

With potatoes for the mass market, and fancy fish and poultry for the luxury trade, Prince Edward Island's $2,000,000 income figure the future looks just as bright.

Patrols Should Be Under Police

Responsibility for the safety of boys and girls engaged in school party work is being studied by the Alberta Motor Association under whose auspices the patrols function.

The Association is seeking some legal decision upon its liability in case of accident.

The Association should have no such worry because these patrols should be under its direction at all. They should be under the direction of the police.

Right Man for the Right Job

The appointment of Brigadier J. C. Jefferson as full time civic defence coordinator for Edmonton represents about the best choice that could possibly be made.

As we have pointed out above, civic defence has been treated seriously and capably by the provincial government.

It is important that Edmonton's civic defence be directed by a man whose abilities are commensurate with the elaborate plans being prepared by the province and with the responsibilities involved in those plans.

Brigadier Jefferson has an enviable war record. His expert knowledge of military matters will be invaluable in his new duties.

He enjoys the respect and confidence of Edmonton people and Edmonton institutions.

He has 245 members in the Parliament of Canada. Only a fraction of this number have ever offered a suggestion in the Commons. All members are, of course, in line for the day of party voting. Work of the session would be expedited and more work done if the house were composed of one-third of the present membership.

Home Rule For Scotland

Editor, Bulletin.—Much has been said and written on the question of Home Rule for Scotland. I should say that that country is fortunate to be allowed to escape the tremendous cost and waste of time which this would involve and nothing would be gained by the venture.

All of the so-called western world is much over-governed—overmened too large and too cumbersome. What Scotland needs to do is to continue building school houses, develop Scottish character, and a good product wealth at home and abroad.

In this way she will help govern the world. We have much over-governed in Canada and may give Scotland the benefit of our experience.

If Scotland should take a controlled government or more from protective usefulness and turn into a police state, much could be lost.

They would, of course, have a Senate as we have in Canada. But the government would be correctly. This department of our government is recently described by Dean Court of Saskatchewan University as "a political machine."

Members are appointed for life by the party in power and could not be expected to criticize their own party, and so-called "independence," much could be lost.

U.S. Blocks Cargo Shipments to China

Customs Agents to Seize Ships Bound for Red Ports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(UP)—The commerce department moved quickly today to block all cargo shipments to Communist China.

Customs agents were ordered last night to seize any American ship that might be trying to deliver goods—directly or indirectly—to the Chinese Communists.

The ships will be seized and their cargoes held if they stop at any U.S. port or try to go through the Panama Canal.

The ban applies equally to American-made and foreign-made commodities whether they are of strategic use or not.

The action was taken after Senators, led by Herbert R. O'Connor, D-Mt., sharply protested that American ships have been pouring strategic goods into the Chinese Communist war machine.

O'Connor charged yesterday that eight American ships are now on the high seas loaded with strategic materials for Red China. Some of the ships, which he did not identify, would stop off at Hong Kong before delivering their cargoes to the Communists, he said.

Sen. Burnet R. Maybank, D-S.C., promptly introduced legislation to stop all shipments of any kind to the Communist world.

Sen. William F. Knowland, R-Cal., charged that British shipments through Hong Kong are "aiding and abetting the Chinese war."

Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., said, "The real fault lies with the British."

The new order, a commerce department spokesman said, was aimed at "picking up a few ships which left New York recently."

There was a charge he said, that the ships would stop at southern or west coast ports before sailing for the Far East.

The order broadened a regulation handed down last Saturday which banned all shipments to Red China unless the shipper obtained a special license. The new regulation permits customs agents to seize any cargo that might have been at sea when the Saturday regulation was issued.

The order was untouched. The evening clothes were overlooked.

The sports clothes were passed by. The only thing the thieves took were five maternity garments valued at $15.

N.Z. Trying to Sell State-Owned Airline

WELLINGTON, N.Z., Dec. 7.—(Reuters)—The nationalist New Zealand government, which just one year ago has given itself 14 more months to find a customer for the National Airways Corporation set up by a Labor government five years ago.

Bids are being sought in Britain, Australia and New Zealand, even though the former labor prime minister, Peter Fraser, has served notice that his party will buy back the airline if it is returned to power.

Fraser and his colleagues say that defense considerations alone make it highly desirable to keep the airline in government hands, since they have to come under state control in wartime anyway.

But the civil aviation minister, W. E. Goosman, says he is convinced that airlines operate far more efficiently under private enterprise. He also says that sale of the airline would relieve New Zealand taxpayers of losses shown by NAC.

IN RED 2 YEARS

NAC showed small profits in its first two years, but it has been in the red for the last two years for a total of about £400,000.

Budget forecasts for 1951-52 predict a small profit of about £10,000. A profit of about £150,000 is forecast for the following year.

Civil aviation experts note a parallel with Australia, where the state-owned Trans-Australia Airlines declared a profit this year of about £210,000 after losing about £300,000 during its first three development years.

They also note that both the state-owned Tasman Empire Airways and the British Commonwealth Pacific Airlines (owned jointly by Britain, Australia and New Zealand) are operating at profit this year.

USUALLY LOSE

(Britain's state-owned airlines generally run in the red, although record monthly profits were reported last summer.)

Originally, the Nationalist government planned to sell NAC stock, stock and barrel or in sections to one or more companies. But recently Goosman announced a compromise offer of a joint scheme, with the government retaining a 51-per-cent interest.

Aviation circles are inclined to believe that the alternative plan has a better chance of finding customers.

Son of Jolson Gets U.S. Medal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Defense Secretary George Marshall pinned a medal for merit on three-year-old Asa Albert Jolson yesterday and told him it was for his late father, Al Jolson, to whom the United States owes a "debt which cannot be repaid." The singer died Oct. 23, shortly after returning from his last of many trips through three wars to entertain American soldiers at fighting fronts.

Mosart's opera "The Magic Flute" was composed and conducted by the great Austrian a few months before his death in 1791.

Pacific War Began 9 Years Ago Today

Parallel Between Then And Now Stands Out In Crisis

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Nine years ago today the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and catapulted the United States into the Second World War.

Dec. 7, 1941 . . . in the words of Franklin D. Roosevelt, it marked "a day that will live in infamy."

On the anniversary of that grim day, the parallel between then and now stands forth in the light of a grave new crisis arising from the assault of a Chinese Communist army in Korea and the threat of Soviet armies massed half across the world.

Is the United States prepared for a third world war, if it should come?

Carefully weighing both sides of the question, military and diplomatic experts say the country's readiness for war today is vastly greater, in many respects, than in the alarm-filled days just before Pearl Harbor.

But—and this they emphasize—there are tremendous handicaps and hazards that must be overcome now in an all-out war against Russia and her satellites, compared to the war against the Tokyo-Berlin-Rome Axis powers.

ON THE STRONG SIDE: . . . 1. With the atom bomb, a powerful long-range air arm and the world's largest navy, the United States could inflict staggering punishment on the enemy's heartland. 2. Industrially, the United States is far stronger in war-making potentialities than it was in 1941. Steel production is four times greater than estimated Russian capacity. 3. Politically, the U.S. is more unified in support of a strong anti-aggression policy.

ON THE WEAK SIDE: 1. In manpower, the Soviet over-shadowed the United States and its allies about two to one. In December, 1941, the ratio was roughly 5 to 4 in favor of the Allies against the Axis. 2. Strategically, Russia and the Red satellite states already have the advantage in any full-scale war that might erupt in Asia or Europe. Once again the U.S.

Sugar Farmers Get Payment For 1950 Crop

LETHBRIDGE, Dec. 7.—Second cheques on the initial 1950 payment for the Southern Alberta sugar beet crop are in the mails today.

The cheques total $1,080,000. First portion of the payment was made on Nov. 6, covering sugar beets delivered up to Oct. 21. Present payment covers beets delivered since that date.

Payments are being made on 108,000 tons of beets, at $10 per ton.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Yugoslavia formally accepted yesterday a British offer of £3,000,000 ($8,800,000) loan to help tide her over a winter food crisis.

Calgary Has Banner Year

CALGARY, Dec. 7.—(CP)—The Calgary Exhibition and Stampede Ltd. finished the year with a net operating surplus of $224,449.88, despite the fact that the 1950 exhibition and stampede was plagued by bad weather.

This information was given to the shareholders by J. Charles Yur, managing director, at the annual luncheon and business meeting held in the new arena yesterday.

The shareholders met in one corner of the big arena, and one of the largest attendances in the history of the association was recorded.

Following the business meeting, the shareholders, directors and associate directors toured the building, the cost of which to date was set at $12,740,000. First hockey game in the building is scheduled for Dec. 26.

would have to fight on distant fronts.

3. Politically, Russia is known to have built up a vast interlocking network of Communist spy and sabotage rings. Officials have no doubt that a dangerous "fifth column" would have to be reckoned with, especially in Europe.

Prices Down To Farmers

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—Prices received by farmers for their products declined in October, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

The Bureau said its farm price index, calculated on the basis that prices in 1935-39 equal 100, slipped to 236.5 from 247.3 in September and 248.8 in October last year. The index now is at its lowest since December, 1947, when it dipped to 226.7.

The decline was attributed to lower average grain prices in the prairie provinces and a drop in livestock and potato prices. These decreases were offset to some extent by higher prices for dairy products, poultry and eggs.

Index numbers for each province, with those for September in brackets, follow:

Prince Edward Island 184.4 (190.3); Nova Scotia 236.3 (237.0); New Brunswick 234.5 (228.0); Que-

Israeli Diplomats Ask for Change

TEL AVIV, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Three Israeli diplomatic representatives to Poland have asked to be relieved of their posts, it was announced yesterday. Political circles believe their request stems from disagreement with Israel's support of the United Nations action in Korea.

University To Seek Aid

Plan for federal aid for Canadian Universities is being supported by the University of Alberta through the National Conference of Canadian Universities.

President Andrew Stewart who announced the local university's action in connection with the request, said yesterday a deficit is expected on University of Alberta operations this year.

Any increase in fees—already contemplated by some other universities in an effort to meet rising costs—would be the decision of the University board of governors, President Stewart said.

Lloydminster Visitors Confused by Borderline

By Hugh Dempsey
Provincial Editor

LLOYDMINSTER, Dec. 7.—A good study in inter-provincial public relations can be seen after spending a few brief hours in this border town of Lloydminster.

A place where the west sidewalk of main street is in Alberta and the east is in Saskatchewan, Lloydminster has to do a lot of figuring if they want their town to grow up on both sides of the road.

And Lloydminster is certainly growing.

Since the discovery of oil in the surrounding area, Lloyd has been increasing by leaps and bounds. Already there is talk of incorporating it as a city, although the more level-headed citizens would like to see the population comfortably over the 500,000 mark before any definite move is made.

BORDER PROBLEMS

But they have their little problems that do not even have to be considered by "lloyd" towns.

When they passed main street half the job belonged to Alberta and the other half to Saskatchewan. Their schools—a new one was opened this summer and its already crowded—have to be built by the Saskatchewan government, boosted by an Alberta grant.

The new airfield, which began handling regular CPA flights between Edmonton and North Battleford this week, is situated just inside the Saskatchewan border. If it straddled the line, CPA would have suffered under headaches trying to figure out which supervisor should look after it.

SPIRITS, TOO

Beverages of the spiritual make didn't need to give the border town any trouble. The government vendor was located on the Alberta side, and tipplers had to purchase the usual 50-cent permit for the year.

But now that Saskatchewan is Mostly About Goldie

The warm spell must have put Elegant Elsie under some kind of spell. She said today she doesn't mind an ill wind as long as it's a chinook.

Everybody's pitching into the hunt for little Michael Mahoney's lost dog. You'll remember the letter from seven-year-old Michael that appeared in On The Town Tuesday.

Well Mrs. Mahoney phoned to say the response from Edmonton people has been heart-warming but yellow-haired Goldie has not yet been found.

Dozens of people have phoned to say they're sure they saw Goldie at this place or that place. One man brought a little dog all the way from the Highlands to the Mahoney home. Mitchell was sure he had found Goldie but it was a girl dog and Goldie is a boy.

Some more information on Goldie. He is about two and one half years old and he sure knows his own name. He hasn't been taken to the city pound and he hasn't been run over by a car as far as can be ascertained.

Goldie is no special breed but he looks like a Spitz. He stands about 12 inches from the ground at shoulder height.

What makes the disappearance of Goldie mysterious is that he is a home-leaving dog and has never wandered away before.

If you are just getting in on the missing dog story for the first time, Goldie is the very special pet of Michael Mahoney of 10630-106 avenue.

If you know anything about this dog call the Mahoney home.

Michael is so anxious to get Goldie back he's pledged a whole dollar in his piggy bank as reward for his dog's return.

Mrs. Mahoney says she can't understand why there are wars because so many people get all worked up over a little boy's lost dog. I've often thought the same thing.

Mrs. H. H. Nieman of 10445-125 street is sad over the loss of her dog, Jimmy, a faithful 15-year-old pet that was killed by an automobile yesterday.

No wonder Mrs. Nieman feels the loss of Jimmy so keenly. The dog saved the Nieman family on three occasions by his loud warning barking when fire threatened their home in the night.

She wonders how a motorist could knowingly knock down a dog and cold-bloodedly drive away without even giving the animal a second look.

Whatever became of the flying saucers?

Bill Codd, who used to be an accountant in the main office of the Dominion Bank here for quite a few years has been promoted.

Bill's heading up to The Pas, to become manager of the Dominion bank in that colorful Manitoba town. Congratulations Bill. Don't bank on spring coming early in The Pas.

A good goodnight to all and especially to people who go to the back of the bus.

The meeting, purpose of which is to co-ordinate a plan to assist in

Don't Invent a Mousetrap, Nose-Warmer Is More Vital

By PAT McVEEN

If you want the world to beat a path to your door, don't invent a mousetrap.

There's a way to make it something practical, like a device to keep the nose warm in extremely cold weather.

Edmontonians, who aren't much concerned with trapping mice, in any case, should have a natural headgear for the nation's inventors: many of the those which would meet a specific need in northern climates.

The army for instance, would be happier if you could devise an ad-hoc device that would stick explosively to a vertical surface for two months even when as cold as 40 degrees below zero.

You could also win fame and fortune for inventing a lightweight gasoline vehicle that could operate over snow, or a substitute for down and feathers for use in Arctic sleeping bags, or machinery for burrowing a large tunnel through packed snow or ice.

Have any other inventions the military forces would welcome?

A tool for the rapid splicing of military field wire under adverse weather conditions and in darkness.

An automatic coupling joint for bridges.

Basic Cookie Dough Saves Kitchen Time

By Bea Thrifty

Hi dearies!

Most of us are busier than whirling dervishes these working, baking, planning, scheming days . . . and most of us are beginning to harbor that "harried" look of "too much to do in too little time."

As with best laid plans of mice 'n' men, my Christmas planning has gone more than slightly askew.

I'm desperately trying to get shopping-for-gifts under control so next week may be devoted to an orgy of baking and meal-planning for the festive season.

But I've become so fascinated with a short-cut cookie idea I want to ignore this week . . . and jump smack into next week's baking.

Friend friend who's a whiz at fancy cookies slipped the word to me that she uses a basic mix (her own) when she's making cookies-for-occasions.

With a five cups of flour to one pound emulsified-type shortening to one tablespoon salt mix she makes oatmeal cookies, fruit drops, elegant almond cookies, flavored orange drops in special Christmas shapes.

More culinary conversation has to do with a new powdered skim milk recently arrived on the local market.

Selling for about 20¢ per package, the skim milk powder mix makes more than four full-quarts of milk.

This is an economy gesture indeed as manufacturers assure us the powder contains all the nutritive value of whole milk.

Now I'm a gal who's tussy about milk-to-drink and I must confess I'm not too partial to drinking the new deal . . . but when it comes to baking it's another matter indeed.

I've tried it in at least a dozen different ways . . . in cakes, puddings, sauces . . . and you'd nary guess the difference.

But . . . this is important . . . chill your powder 'n' water before using . . . the flour is more true, and the water has a chance to completely mix with the powdered milk.

Friday, the fish, day is a problem when quickie-meals are called for during this pre-holiday season of rush, rush, rush.

And to aid and abet homemakers such as we a "Van-couver fisherman has come to the fore with a new tinned product for just such occasions.

Tinned salmon patties, blended with rice and seasoning sells at 29¢ for a quicker "sea-and-catch-will-be-dinner" dish.

Six patties are included in the tin, are partially cooked and require only heating and further browning.

Suggestion for lemon slice or tomato sauce garnish goes right along with the tin . . . so you try them and just let me know what you think of the latest Friday time-saver.

RESTING WITH PADS over your eyes will help you to bounce back during these trying pre-Christmas days.

WHY GROW OLD

You Will Get as Much Done If You Take Rest Periods

By Josephine Lowman

Just between us girls this is a hectic season even if it is fun.

I don't know how it is but your tempo, even in mine is most of the Christmas shopping.

In case you too are becoming too much really about let me give you a little rest period. You may not see it but you are. You are using better judgment in the choice of your gifts, if you will take two 15-minute rest periods during the day. Do not try to go on long stretches without rest.

Live down with your legs and hips bent and your head and neck bent over your work. Some women find it useful to recline while others prefer to sit in a chair or on a stool. Use whatever you like best. Rest completely for a short time.

Those who remain youthful are those who take the afternoon rest habit. If you cannot resting on your back, try to lie down with some rest periods.

In all times of stress and hurry and when you are tired and weary, remember the old adage: "A little rest goes a long way." The use of the words "rest" and "relax" have been learned and used regularly in a very practical way. Many of the world's famous men have learned to lie down and sleep for ten or fifteen-minute periods in between hectic responsibilities.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

This Husband Really A Pathological Case

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been married for three months. We started out fine. We bought new furniture and set up housekeeping for ourselves and for the first week we were happy.

Then he decided he wanted his mother and couldn't live without her. I thought that he would get over his homesickness, but no matter how hard I try to make things pleasant for him, he still wants to go back to mother. And he says he doesn't love me any more.

He only loves mother. I told him that if this was the case we had better break up housekeeping and he would go to his mother and I'd go to mine, but he complains that this will make a scandal, and that the only way out is for him to commit suicide. I love him and am willing to sacrifice my happiness for him.

ANSWER: Your husband is a pathological case and you should take him at once to some good psychiatrist and let science clarify his muddled emotions. Perhaps a psychiatrist can make him see that the two loves, the love of mother and wife, do not conflict, but each has its place in a well-ordered normal life.

TALK TO MOTHER-IN-LAW In the meantime go to your mother-in-law and have a frank talk with her. She is the key to the whole situation. Make her realize that her son's excessive affection for her is not only wrecking his happiness but is driving him insane, and ask her to cut her apron string and set him free.

Parents Should Know Symptoms If there is any history of mental fever in the family, children should be watched carefully for any abnormality, especially after the age of five.

Frequent chills, overcrowded quarters and poor diet may be contributory factors in the development of this disease. Rheumatic fever may damage the heart. Shock or a child's sympathy such as failure to gain weight normally, frequent headaches, low fever and sharp pains in limbs and joints, a doctor should be consulted.

Movie Star Loses Surplus Pounds
With Liquid Diet
Elizabeth Taylor maybe married... but she still has a tendency to love of sandwiches, chocolate milk and sodas... all the foods that add the extra weight no movie star wants.

Elizabeth knows this, so she checks her weight twice a week, and whenever she gains an extra pound she takes it right off, not by exercising or by swallowing pills, but by going on a liquid diet. Elizabeth Taylor finds it the easiest way to lose surplus pounds. She claims a liquid diet for 24 hours has amazing results. Her formula is a drink of something hot and cold, every two hours. Right around the clock, her remedy for any hunger pangs is an extra drink of liquid. Her one-day diet usually begins with lemon juice in hot water, followed by hot tea and a glass of skimmed milk. For the rest of the day she drinks vegetable juices, and at supper she allows herself a bowl of clear soup. It's always good to know how to take off that extra weight, but it's also nice to know that you can keep your weight normal—not by eating less—simply by eating wisely.

Food Inspectors Across Canada

Canada employs a group of busy sleuths who are always on the watch for food that is not up to standards of purity. Careless food in 24 which lots of foreign matter are found, olive oil that has a bad odor, or food that is unclean or infested with insects life are the quarries of these inspectors.

Bran Meat Balls Are Tasty Treats

BRAN MEAT BALLS
Many housewives prefer bran meatballs to hamburgers. They may take a little longer to cook, but they're a pleasant change for any supper table.

Beat one egg and add to it one teaspoon salt, a shake of pepper, one cup of bran and one and a quarter cups of milk. Then add one pound of minced onion, and one tablespoon, chopped parsley. Mix well and make into inch-thick cakes. Wrap a slice of bacon around each cake, fasten with a toothpick and bake in a hot oven for half an hour.

That will do just about every green bean.

On their return young couple will make their home in Redwater.

Revival of a good old-fashioned Christmas custom is welcome this Yuletide of '50.

And the good old custom is "giving choice foods for a Merry Christmas gesture. It's a chance to personalize your gifts... and select cookies, cheeses, jams, jellies to please that special person.

For the livebearer there's a great variety of one-serving foods, such as spaghetti, baked beans, junior foods that make luscious desserts and salads, portion-wrapped cheese wedges... or small glass jars of cheese spread.

And of course, what could be more welcome than home-baked goodies?

Yummy cookies, crisp ones, some frosted... some plain... some fruit-filled... cinnamon... good.

Of course, there's moppet-ize Christmas cakes, baked rich and fruity in glazed orange or grapefruit cups; candies, cheery and luscious with chocolate, coconut, cherries, nuts and calories.

You see... what promises of gourmet's delight for your dearest friend!

Baskets, suddenly available in many shapes, sizes and for many uses, make delightfully inexpensive carry-alls for the host offerings.

Covered casseroles, mixing bowls, plastic refrigerator dishes, painted cardboard boxes, cake tins... do the job more than adequately.

Line your gift container with a deep paper doily and tuck in the special treasures. Add the spirit of holiday, the glitter of Christmas seals and the gleam of colorful satin ribbon.

Now... just see how your personal gift will strike the note of true friendship and thoughtfulness!

More Hope Held For Seaway Plan

Official Canadian Circles See Friendly U.S. Congress

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—The federal government is reported more hopeful that the long-delayed St. Lawrence seaway and power development may win adoption in the United States Congress in 1951.

Administrative sources believe the government now believes the project has at least an even chance in Congress, which has repeatedly considered it in the past.

This belief is based on recent developments which indicate a changing sentiment towards the project. Two recent indications:

1. A declaration by Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, leading Republican and long-time opponent of the project, that he now is prepared to give it conditional consideration.

2. A speech by Stanley Woodward, U.S. ambassador to Canada, in which he stressed that President Truman had told him that he feels the project has a new sense of urgency, and that he is prepared to press it in Congress.

Ability to Count Is Big Part of Bridge

In spite of all the schools we have in this country, very few people can count to 13. It is that simple arithmetical figure, one of the most important weapons of the expert bridge player. An example is given as follows:

trick suit, suit with the king of spades.

South wondered who he had had so many times before. He felt the jack of hearts from the diamond for a freeze. When the jack laid the trick, however, South felt a little better about his optimistic contract.

He continued with the ten of hearts. East covered with the king and declarer won in his own hand with the ace. He then drew the last trump, West discarding the eight of diamonds.

South's next step was to cash the queen of spades, since there was a chance that the suit would break—in which case South would get rid of the aching diamond. However, this time was dashed when East announced the jack of diamonds on the second of spades.

The club were the only hope now, as South was completely out of diamonds. He tried to cash the club, but East played low and South finished the trick, losing to West's king.

West retained a spade, forcing declarer to cash the last two trumps. Time had come to count up. East had started with only one spade and three hearts. The diamond bidding indicated that East had five and West had four. That accounted for the loss of the diamond, leaving room in his hand for four clubs.

By this time East had been obliged to discard three of his original five diamonds, leaving only two in his hand. South's diamond lead was a low diamond from his hand and played low from the dummy.

The idea was to persuade East to win cheaply with his jack. If he did, South would have a trump over him. South's diamond lead was a low diamond from his hand and played low from the dummy.

At this point South knew, thanks to his ability to count to 13, that East had only three left. Hence he led the deuce of clubs from his hand. Dummy's eight forced out East's ten. East then had to lead clubs, giving South the chance to win the last two tricks by a finesse.

willing to consider the project if he could be convinced that the Seaway would be useful in the shipment of needed iron ores from the newly-developed fields in Labrador to steel plants in the U.S. Midwest. That factor has been one of Canada's selling points.

Mr. Woodward's statements may have developed from a speech made in Cornwall, Ont. heart of the proposed Seaway area, by Transport Minister Chevrier, the Canadian minister most closely associated with the St. Lawrence development.

CORNWALL SPEECH

Mr. Chevrier beseeched Canada's impatience at American inaction and suggested that Canada soon might have to consider whether she should not go ahead on the project without the U.S.

It is known that the U.S. state department asked for and obtained a copy of Mr. Chevrier's speech. It also produced reactions—generally favoring early construction of the

Steel Industry Sure Of Meeting Demands

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 7.—(UP)—The fast-expanding steel industry was confident today that it will meet the swelling demands for war steel without serious hardship to civilian consumers.

Industry spokesmen said steel supplies for civilian use will be tight, but not enough to cause "serious hardship" on the civilian economy.

At Detroit, automotive industry spokesmen from U.S. border points along the proposed waterway.

Another factor which might operate in favor of the project in Congress was the defeat of Senator Tydings of Maryland in the November Congressional elections. An opponent of the Seaway, he was chairman of a senate committee which has pigeon-holed the project since it has come before Congress in recent years.

steel products five per cent.

In Washington, the National Production Authority urged steel men to produce more and more steel. As a result, the industry set higher production goals and was ready to produce every pound of steel needed, regardless of the limits to which it pushes the annual capacity.

REAL POTENTIAL

Berlinth P. Paine, president of U.S. steel corp., producer of one third of the nation's steel said capacity estimates were "relatively unimportant statistics." The industry could produce 130,000,000 tons a year if the market will take it, he said.

NPA officials and steelmakers agreed, however, that more steel was urgently needed to meet the present crisis.

The steel men said in effect, they were preparing for the necessary expansion but they warned that production expansion is a huge job.

$96 Millions Have Gone to Provinces

Health Program Commitments Given In Conference Brief

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—The federal government has made available approximately $96,000,000 in health grants to the provinces during the last two and one-half years. The figure was contained in a brief presented for the federal-provincial conference on fiscal and social security matters.

The brief, made public after a committee of federal and provincial delegates began a study of improved delivery position programs, said that amount about $18,000,000 had been spent or committed. Lack of materials, and of trained staffs was limiting the amount that could be spent.

The national health program, inaugurated in 1948, envisions the provision of $185,000,000 during a five-year period to assist the provinces in their planning for increasing hospital accommodation and expanding health activities.

The brief said that the grants allotted so far have helped to increase the number of hospital beds by about 25,000.

OTHER HELP

Other attempts were given on health matters, improvement of the general public health, tuberculosis control, mental health, treatment of venereal diseases, control, treatment of crippled children, professional training, public health research and cancer control.

Research into cancer now is proceeding in all provinces. The provinces are now working on ways to reduce mental health cases and on research in the most advanced field. Scientific advances have been made in the last decade, tuberculosis. The death rate decreased from 47.4 per 100,000 in 1947 to 30.4 in 1949 and now reaches a lower figure.

Before federal grants were available, said the brief, the use of x-ray machines was restricted for the most urgent tuberculosis cases and in many instances it was not provided free.

AVAILABLE TO ALL

Now, the machine available to all patients who suffer from tuberculosis, provided through the decrease in the tuberculosis death rate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—The Truman administration yesterday shelved plans for United States participation in the proposed International Trade Organization. Elizabeth's Succession Right Is Questioned

By Sidney Weiland
OXFORD, England, Dec. 7.—(Reuters)—Oxford University law students have resurrected a 20-year-old legal tangle by questioning Princess Elizabeth's right of succession to the British throne.

The controversy started with the birth of Princess Margaret in 1930. Her sister, Princess Elizabeth, then was four years old. Some legal experts said that by certain precedents both sisters had an equal right to the Crown. Questions were asked in parliament in 1937. Sir John Simon, the home secretary, told the House of Commons:

"The government is advised that there is no doubt that in present circumstances Princess Elizabeth would succeed to the throne as sole heir."

The reply alienated most of the faithful, and there were only occasional ripples of the constitution.

Co-ops Busy In Ontario

TORONTO, Dec. 7.—(CP)—United Co-operatives of Ontario increased sales of their central wholesale agency in 1949 by nine per cent over last year, General Manager Hugh Bailey said yesterday.

Mr. Bailey told delegates from the province's 148 Co-ops at their annual meeting here that sales for the year ended Sept. 30 were $6,319,000, more than $1,000,000 more than the previous year. Net earnings were $250,000, down slightly from the previous year because of increased depreciation costs.

H. H. Haman, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, said the Canadian farmer had made great strides, both nationally and internationally as a result of co-operative techniques. Co-operative endeavor had played a large part in the international

Uncle Wiggily's
Bedtime Story

The wind was blowing. The snow was falling. And Uncle Wiggily in his auto sled loaded with little rabbits, was half way to Hollow Tree School. The rabbit gentleman had started from his bungalow to take the children to school. But half way there his auto sled had stopped. "What the matter, Daddy?" asked Buster, as I told you in a story yesterday. "Why don't we go on, Daddy? We'll be late for school."

"The reason we can't go on, Buster," said Uncle Wiggily, "is because my auto sled is stuck in a deep snow drift."

"Why don't you back up a little bit, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Buster. "I'll try to get it out of the snow drift," said Uncle Wiggily. "Back up the sled!"

"That's no way to get to school, said Buster. "We want to go ahead, not back."

"Well, I was thinking," said Buster, "that if Uncle Wiggily backed up his sled a little way and then made it go forward fast, he could sort of break through the drift. But it was of no use. The auto sled again was stuck in the big drift."

"We can call to Mr. Whitewash," answered Buster. "That polar bear will come and get us out of the snow drift. He is big and strong and he knows a lot about snow drifts."

"So he does, Buster. So he does," said Uncle Wiggily. "I almost forgot that Mr. Whitewash is up ahead of us, plowing through the snow as he does at the North Pole where he lives near the work shop on Santa Claus."

"Excuse me, Uncle Wiggily," said Buster, who was sitting in the sled next to Buster. "Excuse me, Mr. Whitewash works in the shop with Santa Claus."

"Yes, so he does," answered Uncle Wiggily. "But just now I

Tobogganing and sleighing are fun, healthy winter sports, but they can also be dangerous pastimes if safety rules are not observed.

Take, for instance, the practice of sleighing or tobogganing on busy streets.

Every year boys and girls are maimed or killed while doing this. There are hills along the river bank in Edmonton where this sport offers a reasonable amount of safety.

Yet, many boys and girls insist on sleighing on streets such as Steeles Road, Corners Road and 50 Avenue Hill, where traffic of buses, trucks and cars is heavy.

NEVER ON STREET

Sleighs and toboggans should never be used on streets. If you have to use the streets, stick to the sidewalks. Even the curb isn't safe.

An important rule for sleighing on hills where there is no traffic.

Never follow the sleigh track when going up the hill. Use a side track, as we do away from city streets coming down.

Remember, should be kept off of public roads, unless they may be used on public park trails or in open fields, but the boys and girls driving must have perfect control of sleds at all times.

Safety Club members are trained to follow traffic rules. Know! Obey!

Democracy Spreading By Canada Said Weak

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—Canada's part in spreading western democracy is "only half an effort," Norman Smith, associate editor of the Ottawa Journal, told the Canadian Club here today.

Three Lose Lives Near Drumheller

A farm fire and two accidents in the Drumheller district claimed the lives of three men yesterday.

Two persons were injured, one seriously, in a traffic accident at Medicine Hat when two jeeps collided.

A hired man who ignored instructions to jump through an upper window perished in flames that destroyed the Marvin Nelson farm home.

Name of the victim was not disclosed pending notification of relatives in West Westminster, B.C.

Mr. Nelson awoke at 7 a.m. to find the kitchen in flames. He found his husband and they escaped with their three small children.

They called to the hired man, sleeping in an upstairs room and told him to jump from a window. Instead, he tried to make his way through the flames and died before he could reach safety.

MINE TRAGEDY

At Drumheller, Alvin Patterson, 65, boss at Reedley Collieries, Ltd., Star Mine was killed in the mine today. His clothes caught in the wheels and he was dragged into the machinery.

William Heruk, 55, part-time employee of the Alvin Patterson mine, died in hospital as the result of injuries received earlier near the station at Wayne as the CNR train bound for Calgary to Saskatoon went through.

Heruk was picked up from the track suffering from a severed leg, loss of blood, and shock, and was given first aid by a nearby train crew and taken to Drumheller.

RCMP is investigating.

Harold Bell, a reserve army sergeant, suffered two broken legs and shock when he was crushed between vehicles while boarding an army jeep.

Mr. Bell, an occupant of the army jeep, suffered an eye injury when struck by a jagged piece of wood.

The accident occurred at Medicine Hat when a jeep driven by John Schoor of nearby Woolleches was out of control and slid into the army vehicle.

Plenty of Water Way To Halt Tooth Decay

By Paul F. Ellis
United Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(UP)—A team of Wisconsin scientists offered a new way today to prevent tooth decay.

Keep drinking plenty of water, they advised.

One of the scientists, Dr. Paul H. Phillips, pointed out that dilution of foods has an important part in the prevention of cavities and that solid foods, particularly those containing sugars, promote decay while the same diet in liquid form keeps the cavities and potential toothaches down to a minimum.

Dr. Phillips' work is being supported by the Nutrition Foundation, Inc. New York, and the National Dairy Council, Chicago.

PREVENT LOOKING

In a report on progress of the work, Dr. Phillips said:

"Because food in liquid form is able to get by the teeth quickly and does not become lodged in the crevices of the teeth during chewing, there is less chance for cavities to form. Solid foods have just the opposite effect."

The Wisconsin scientists have been conducting experiments with cotton rats, an animal that is exceptionally susceptible to tooth decay. They found out that rats fed solely on liquid diets, particularly milk, were free of cavities while rats fed on a strict diet of dried milk showed high cavity counts.

The scientists decided that it was not the kind of food which makes the difference, but rather the form in which food was eaten that counted. Experiments showed, they have found, that even in the presence of large quantities of sugars used by bacteria, liquid milk gave protection.

CUT DOWN ON SUGAR

"All this adds up to using a little common sense in eating habits," Dr. Phillips said. "Although the only way we know to eliminate tooth decay through choice of food is to switch to an all liquid diet of

Continuance Seen Of Feed Subsidy

Had Been Counted Casualty Of Latest Economy Drive

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(CP)—A government official said today the federal subsidy on the movement of western feed grains will in all likelihood be continued until at least July 31 next.

Fears have been expressed by farm groups across the country, including the 400,000-member Canadian Federation of Agriculture, that the subsidy, first started in 1941, would be ditched in the government's current economy drive.

The official said that although funds have been set aside for the payment of subsidies to March 31 only, it is expected that supplementary estimates will be passed at the next session of Parliament to continue the payment until the end of the 1950-51 crop year. The crop year ends July 31.

What comes after that will depend on conditions which prevail then, and on the recommendations of the Royal Transportation Commission, which is expected to report to the government next spring on its Canadian transportation investigation.

RATES STUDIED

The official said the commission may find that Canadian railway rates on the movement of feed grains are too high. And, of course, if the decision is taken to lower the rates, then the subsidies likely will be withdrawn.

Generally, the subsidy is about 10 per cent on the shipment by rail of western feed grains to central Canada. The subsidy goes up about 2 1/2 per cent on shipments to points east of Montreal. The subsidy also is paid on shipments of feed grains from Calgary and Edmonton to the Pacific coast and comes to about 8 per cent.

So far, the government has paid out about $167,000,000 since the subsidy scheme started in 1941. Another $5,000,000 likely will be paid before March 31 next.

Germans Still Held by Reds

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Dec. 7.—(AP)—A West German representative said today that at least 62,792 German war prisoners "are known to be still alive in Soviet captivity."

The representative, George Federer, reported this "minimum figure" as a United Nations committee prepared to take up a joint United States-British-Australian demand for UN action to shed light on the fate of thousands of German and Japanese prisoners taken by the Russians.

The demand, placed on the agenda of the general assembly's social and humanitarian committee over vigorous Russian objections, is expected to be debated by the committee today or tomorrow.

Federer's group is the first German delegation to attend a United Nations meeting.

Y Mac Club, which handles trees on the north side of the city, expect a shipment of 1,500 B.C. firs Friday or Saturday. They will go on sale early next week on a lot next to Recreation Commission Building, 100 street.

Both clubs have also ordered shipments of Alberta pines and spruces from Edmonton and other hills districts. Officials of South Side Kiwanis state that 1,000 Alberta trees will come in by truck at the end of the week.

According to Kiwanians, trees are costing a bit more than last year, but retail price range will be kept about the same level as a year ago.

Prices on B.C. firs will vary from $1 to $5 or more, depending on size. Seven-footers, the most popular size, will retail for $2.

Alberta trees will sell for $2.50. Both Kiwanians and Y Mac Club will donate several 15-foot trees to church and civic groups who sponsor Christmas children's parties.

According to Kiwanians, trees are costing a bit more than last year, but retail price range will be kept about the same level as a year ago.

Prices on B.C. firs will vary from $1 to $5 or more, depending on size. Seven-footers, the most popular size, will retail for $2.

Alberta trees will sell for $2.50. Both Kiwanians and Y Mac Club will donate several 15-foot trees to church and civic groups who sponsor Christmas children's parties.

Y Mac Club is presently selling $1 vouchers with purchasers paying or collecting the difference on a tree at the time of delivery.

Both clubs have also ordered shipments of Alberta pines and spruces from Edmonton and other hills districts. Officials of South Side Kiwanis state that 1,000 Alberta trees will come in by truck at the end of the week.

Eaton's Cast Aluminum Ware

To Help Retain Natural Vitamins

Use as Little as 2 Teaspoons of Water!

Healthier cooking because by using a minimum of water, you help retain vitamin waste. Economical cooking because aluminum requires but a fraction of the heat needed for ordinary utensils. Better cooking because aluminum conducts heat quickly and evenly... food cooks as well as the outer edges as in the center. All are heavy cast aluminum with Bakelite (trade name) handles and knobs for cook, comfortable handling.
